The San Ignacio Resort Hotel is the premier location to host social and corporate events from small training seminars to elaborate weddings. From catering services to musical entertainment- leave it all in the hands of our professional and experienced event planners. We are able to create the most successful events to meet your specific objectives.

Our newly renovated banquet room, the Bedran Hall, is the perfect venue for large conferences, workshops and receptions. Since completing its renovations in March 2010, it has been the preferred venue for weddings, birthday parties and conferences.

Our Caracol Room is also a perfect venue for smaller conferences, workshops and receptions.

The San Ignacio Resort Hotel boasts the best conference and reception facilities together with the most "friendly" and "over the top" service in the region.

We look forward to working with you in making your event a successful one.
